Strategic Plan 2019-22

Welcome

We are delighted to present the YouthBorders Strategic Plan 2019-22. This plan sets out the organisational intentions of YouthBorders for the next three years. It has been informed by an earlier Strategic Plan which was prepared by the Board of Trustees in 2018. This update to the plan reflects that our organisation is evolving.

In early 2019 YouthBorders appointed a new Chief Officer following the departure of our previous Chief Officer who had served the organisation for four years. In this same year staff positions were realigned and additional capacity secured through new partnerships and funding opportunities. The Board of Trustees requested an updated Strategic Plan to recognise these internal changes, and to reflect the range of national and regional policy drivers influencing the youth work sector. We believe that this plan aligns our ambitions to our capacity and our charitable objectives, takes cognisance of the social and economic challenges facing our community, and is accessible to all our partners and stakeholders. This is a plan which reflects that we are a network of members and that YouthBorders will work in a way which respects the best interest of, and advocates for all our members.

In brief, this plan communicates who we are and what we do, sets out our ambitions for the next three years, and serves as a framework for organisational business planning and self-evaluation. The plan will be monitored on a 'plan - do - review - improve' evaluation cycle and is organised around three ambitions:

- Collaboration and Partnership: a youth work sector which collaborates
- Voice and Community: a membership which is connected, empowered and represented
- Workforce Development: a membership which is supported, confident and competent

We will update our membership and partners annually as to how well we are achieving this plan. We look forward to working with you as we realise our shared ambition to ensure that youth work continues to improve the lives of young people in the Scottish Borders.

YouthBorders is the network of voluntary and community-based youth organisations in the Scottish Borders, supporting and promoting good quality youth work.

As a membership organisation YouthBorders facilitates networking opportunities and events, and provides information and advice to voluntary and community-based youth organisations, their volunteers, trustees, youth workers, and other partners in the community. YouthBorders is recognised regionally as the strategic voice of third sector youth organisations and works closely with partners in the public sector to improve outcomes for young people.

Vision

A voluntary and community-based youth work sector which is connected, collaborative, respected, and recognised; working together to improve the lives of young people in the Scottish Borders.

Aim

Working in partnership with our members, YouthBorders aims to improve young people's lives through their participation in quality voluntary and community-based youth work.

Principles

YouthBorders is an organisation built on the following foundations:

- Recognition that youth work is a distinct, professional, educative practice with a code of values and ethics
- Commitment to equality, diversity, and inclusion
- Furtherance of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child
- Governance which is excellent and transparent

Values

YouthBorders is a membership-focused organisation that will:

- Strive towards excellence in all that we do
- Work in a manner that respects the best interests of, and advocates for all our members
- Work collaboratively with a range of partners and stakeholders to achieve our aim

Objectives

YouthBorders supports voluntary and community-based youth organisations, their volunteers, trustees, youth workers, and other partners by:

- a) Facilitating networking opportunities and events, providing information and representing the interests of the sector strategically in local, regional and national forums.
- b) Offering a comprehensive support package for members including PVG support, insurance, governance support, funding, and general advice.
- c) Actively promoting the setting up of new groups in the community that will benefit young people.
- d) Providing support and training for adults (youth work practitioners and trustees), who work with or support young people in voluntary and community-based youth organisations and partner organisations.
- e) Providing opportunities for young people to engage in learning opportunities to develop themselves as youth work practitioners or in other leadership roles.

A youth work sector which collaborates

PLAN: What will the difference be?

1.1 The youth work sector will be supported to work in strategic partnerships to innovate and improve how youth work services are funded, planned, and delivered in the Scottish Borders.

DO: What will we do?

Policy Connections Appendix 1

YouthBorders is informed by and contributes to the wider strategic policy landscape in Scotland.

National

What is Youth Work?

Youth work has three essential and definitive features:

- Young people choose to participate
- The work must build from where young people are
- The young person and youth worker are partners in a learning process

Developed in partnership with the sector, YouthBorders subscribes to Scotland's Youth Work Outcomes. We believe that youth work has the potential to deliver these outcomes for young people.

(YouthLink Scotland, 2005; YouthLink Scotland, 2018

Youth Work Outcomes

1. Young people are confident, resilient and optimistic for the future

2. Young people manage personal, social and formal relationships

3. Young people create, describe and apply their learning and skills

4. Young people create, describe and effectively in groups

5. Young people consider risk, make reasoned decisions and take control

6. Young people consider risk, make reasoned decisions and take control

7. Young people express their voice and demonstrate social commitment

7. Young people broaden their perspectives through new experiences and thinking
